BRIDGER-TETON PUBLIC LANDS ASSOCIATE/COMMUNITY ORGANIZER

The Wyoming Wilderness Association (WWA) seeks a full-time Organizer to develop and deliver our Bridger-Teton wild lands campaign. The successful candidate will advocate for protection of public wild lands, build support for wilderness recommendations, and promote WWA's mission. The Organizer reports to the Executive Director and is based remotely in our Jackson office. The position requires a person interested and skilled in advocacy, outreach, and education. The ideal candidate will have experience working with nonprofits and government agencies in Jackson or Wyoming.

Responsibilities

- Identify and monitor threats to public wild lands of the Bridger-Teton National Forest.
- Conduct research and write comments on issues related to land protections.
- Develop press releases, email action alerts, social media posts, and other communications to inform and engage the public in land management planning processes.
- Meet and collaborate with government agencies and nonprofit conservation groups.
- Develop and lead field outings in priority landscapes for local public decision-makers and officials, the media, the public, and other stakeholders.
- Organize and host community events and activities.
- Work with the Executive Director and Governing Council to develop and implement fundraising for the Bridger-Teton campaign.
- Increase WWA's membership and attract and inspire volunteers.
- Communicate regularly with WWA staff.
- Complete other duties as assigned to support WWA's mission to protect public wild lands.

Qualifications

- A Bachelor's Degree in natural resources, environmental sciences, public lands policy, or a related field plus one year of related work experience.
- Knowledge of NEPA and US Forest Service planning associated with recreation, grazing, logging, and prescribed burning in Wilderness, Wilderness Study Areas, and other roadless areas.
- Strong interpersonal, writing, public speaking, administration, and management skills.
- Independent and self-motivated with ability to work as part of a team or without supervision.
- Proficient with Microsoft Office Suite and ability to learn new technology.
- Knowledge of public lands issues and conservation politics in Wyoming.
- Excellent hiking and camping skills.

Salary plus medical, vision, dental benefits; sick and vacation leave. Salary commensurate with experience.

To apply, send cover letter and resume with contact information for three references by 20 December 2017 to Marco Restani (marco@wildwyo.org).
